

Scenario Planning Session 2

Dennis Nangle, Senior Program Officer

Reminder of Structure

- Today's scenarios: Windfalls and Wonderful Things
- Groups will have thirty minutes to:
  - Digest their scenario and make individual notes (5 min)
  - Collectively consider implications for the work of state libraries in their breakout rooms (25 min)
- Each group will have an IMLS facilitator
- Identify a representative who will share a summary of the group's work when we come back together

Reminder of Norms

- Be open to new ideas
- Challenge your assumptions
- Suspend disbelief
- Stay “future-oriented”
- Fully participate
  - listen actively
  - contribute
  - leave “space” in the conversation for others
  - stay engaged

Debrief

- What was your overall impression of the scenario planning process?
- Which type of scenario fostered more interesting discussion: catastrophes or windfalls? Why?
- What kind of insights did you glean through this process that could apply to your work at the state library?
